Novelist John Steinbeck described the Amalfi Coast as a "dream place that isn't quite real when you're there; a place that becomes beckoningly real after you have gone." As pilgrims traveling to Italy on our upcoming WINE & Shrine Women's Pilgrimage, we have no doubt you, too, will be as overwhelmed, if not more so, than Steinbeck. You will be immersed in the reality of God's love through not just the incredible scenery, but through the shrines built in the Lord's honor and through the lives of the saints you will meet along the way. And best of all you will have the opportunity to grow in faith with fellow sisters in Christ as we journey closer to the heart of Christ and His Church in one of the most beautiful places on the Lord's green earth. Benvenuti Sorelle! We look forward to welcoming you soon.
