Join me...

For over 1500 years, the legacy of St. Benedict has been preparing men and women to face the challenges of their life. Join us in journeying back to the places where it all started: the places where Benedict himself walked and lived his life. Together we'll explore the roots and values of Benedictine monasticism and reflect on how St Anselm's Abbey School carries them forward, bringing them to our boys, their families, and our staff, so that they might be prepared to face the challenges of their lives today.
